Comprehensive Distance Learning

The school year has began and virtual classes are going. We have included a link to the high school webpage, where there is information about distance learning and the online schedule. <https://www.nwasco.k12.or.us/high>

The Radio Show Disaster:

The TDHS Drama Department is putting on a virtual production of The Radio Show Disaster by Don Zolidis. Harlan Bean, the self proclaimed genius, is attempting to make history with his sci-fi radio masterpiece Battle of the Planets. Unluckily for him, his play is in the hands of less than competent actors, a vengeful sound engineer, and multiple last minute replacements. To watch this disaster unfold you can follow the link on the school website to Broadway on Demand. Performances are on November 12, 13, 19, and 20th at 7:00 pm. Tickets are $6.00 and you can pay through Paypal. <https://www.nwasco.k12.or.us/high>

AP Updates:

Students who want to take an AP exam in the spring will need to sign up by November 12th. If they are in an AP class, they need to join that class on the College Board website and indicate in their account that they want to order a test. Their AP teacher can give them the join code. If they are not in an AP class, they will need to get the join code for the exam from Andrea in the main office and order it through the College Board website as well. They may need to create an account if they are new to AP. This year the first AP exam is free and any after that are only $19 each, which will be added to the student's account at TDHS. Any tests ordered after November 12th will cost $40 more. Here is the link to sign up for tests. AP Test sign Up
